Trinity trips Londonderry in overtime

Jimmy Kosiarski scored with 1:35 left in overtime to lift Trinity to a 3-2 win over Londonderry in a thrilling Division I boys' hockey game Saturday at Sullivan Arena on the St. Anselm College campus in Goffstown.

Nate Arcand and Anthony DiZillo assisted on the game-winner for Trinity (3-1), which squandered a 2-0 lead with five minutes to go in regulation.

Marc L'Heureux put Trinity on the board at 2:08 of the first period with assists from Tim Guman and Ryan Glass. Aidan Ross doubled the Pioneers' advantage at 3:04 of the second, with L'Heureux assisting.

The Lancers (3-3) started their comeback with five minutes to play as Nate Andrews halved Londonderry's deficit on assists from Anthony Federico and Nick Pitarys. Londonderry pulled even with 1:44 to go on Patrick Murphy's goal, assisted by Andrews and Federico.

Ethan Messner stopped 40 shots in the Trinity net. Londonderry goalie Mike Ziv made 27 saves.

St. Thomas 5, Winnacunnet 2: At Dover, the Saints continued their knack for finding the net. The Saints, now 6-0 in Division II, trailed 1-0 before scoring four unanswered goals, including three in the second period. St. Thomas is outscoring opponents 38-10 this season after Saturday's win.

Paddy Vetter and Zach Talbot scored a minute apart in the second period to give St. Thomas its first and only lead. Will MacLean added two goals for the Saints and JoJo Grella pitched in a goal and two assists.

Andrew Mills and Braeden Logue scored for Winnacunnet (1-3).

Merrimack 2, Portsmouth-Newmarket 1: At West Side Arena in Manchester, the Tomahawks got in the win column for the first time this season while escaping the Clipper-Mules. Hunter Burke scored both Merrimack goals with one each in the first and second period. Greg Amato made the lead stick with 25 saves for Merrimack (1-3). Jake Morin had the lone goal for Portsmouth-Newmarket (1-4) while goalie Brad Weit made 27 saves.

Goffstown 11, Nashua North-Souhegan 7: In Nashua, four players scored at least two goals for the Grizzlies (5-1), including a hat trick from Griffin Cook, who added three assists. Noah Charon, Colby Ganache and Sebastian Beal each tallied a pair of goals for Goffstown, which got one apiece from Evan McCuaig and Eric DesRuisseaux. Jacob Noonan notched three assists for Goffstown.

John Natale and Dean Paquette scored twice apiece for North-Souhegan (0-5).

Bishop Guertin 1, Billerica, Mass. 1: Aaron Pratt had the BG goal and Aaron Freitas made 25 saves for the Cardinals.

Girls' basketball

Hanover 41, Bow 40 (OT): In Hanover, the Marauders (4-1) are winners of three straight after escaping the Falcons. The two teams were tied after the third and fourth quarters before Hanover outscored Bow 3-2 in overtime.

Maddie McCorkle scored 21 points for Hanover, which got eight more from Julia Golder. Lea Crompton tossed in a team-high 18 points for the Falcons (1-3).

Wrestling

Chelmsford (Mass.) Invitational: The Londonderry High wrestling team had four wrestlers place at the meet, including a first-place finish for Ben Psaledas.

The junior took the title at 182 pounds, which was the first championship of his high school wrestling career. Craig Santos took second at 145 pounds, missing out on first place in an overtime loss to Chelmsford's Evan Goodall.

Alex Boucher (195) and Taylor Dyer (220) each added runner-up finishes to help the Lancers place sixth out of 24 teams.
